TWO CENTS

CHARLEROI TO HAVE ANNUAL ROLL CALL FOR RED CROSS

John D. Berryman Will Be In Charge of Campaign for Members

WILL ANNOUNCE PLANS SOON

John D. Berryman has been appointed Roll Call Chairman for the Charleroi Chapter of the American Red Cross, and at the present time is arranging for the annual membership campaign, which in many localities will begin on Armistice Day, November 11. Mr. Berryman will not have his plans ready by that time, although he announced on Monday that any of our citizens who wished to renew their membership on that date could do so by leaving the subscription at the office of Mrs. Minnie B. Richardson, McKean avenue.

The plan for the Roll Call this year will be along lines similar to those in the past, the object being to enroll as many citizens as possible in this great enterprise, which always stands ready to extend a helping hand to the needy and distressed. The Red Cross is now so well known to our people that it is needless to set forth the virtues of the organization. Charleroi like thousands of other communities in the United States came to know the Red Cross a great deal better during the great war than ever before. Knowing it in a general way in the years prior to that time, after the United States entered the war the people began to know it is a living entity, an organization that co-ordinated with the general government in looking after the welfare of the soldier as well as the needy at home; that took care of the sick, helpless and wounded; that had charge of the great hospital system which was maintained both abroad and at home; in fact an organization for the alleviation of the sufferings of mankind.

The Red Cross has not changed its objects or principles; they are the same in peace as in war. It is an organization for an emergency; we know not when it may come, but if any disaster should unhappily visit our community, the Red Cross is always available to lend the helping hand, and to do it first.

It costs but one dollar to take out a membership, 50 per cent of which amount remains with the local organization to be used in relief work in the community. Of the contributing and sustaining memberships 80 per cent of the amount remains with the local society, the balance being paid to the national organization.

The Charleroi Red Cross did a great work during the war; it still remains an organization in our community to tender aid and comfort to any of our citizens who may need it. The flu epidemic of two years ago was a concrete example. Had it not been for the ability of the Red Cross to extend aid at that time it is safe to assume that the death rate would

LOGAN JUNIORS HOLD TIGERS SCORELESS

The Logan Junior football team held the strong Tiger football team of Charleroi to a score of 0-0. The Tigers outweighed the Logans, but the lighter team showed they were equal to the occasion in holding their heavier opponents to a scoreless tie.

DANCING PAVILION BURNED AT FAIRHOPE

The Charleroi fire department was called to Fairhope at one o'clock this morning, to assist in fighting a fire which was discovered shortly before that time in the Sowden & Winn dancing pavilion at that place. The structure, together with all its contents, was destroyed, but the local volunteer fire company in conjunction with the Charleroi department, prevented the flames from taking the Henry Osthause building and store, adjoining the pavilion.

How the fire originated is not known, although it was intimated that it might have been of incendiary origin. Only a short time ago the Marion school building, in the same district, was set on fire and completely destroyed. The pavilion was insured, but the amount of the loss is not known.

have been much greater. As it was then, so it is now.

Mr. Berryman will likely announce his plans within a few days, and a date will be fixed for a canvass of the town, so that every citizen may be given an opportunity to contribute at least on dollar for this most worthy enterprise.

Heavy Fines Imposed for Illegal Sale of Liquor

Liquor law violators were in the majority of those arraigned at the opening session of the November term of the Washington county criminal court on Monday.

Hyman and Lena Klee, both of near Canonsburg, were each fined $500 and costs and sentenced respectively to six and three months in the county jail. Their counsel made a plea for a parole, but the court said that a parole would have to be considered later. The court also stated that it had a letter from the Standard Tin Plate company of Canonsburg, in which it was stated that the sale of liquor by these defendants had seriously interfered with their business. Judge Melvaine remarked that the defendants would have to get out of the community.

Other defendants from other parts of the county who entered pleas of guilty to a charge of selling liquor illegally, were also fined by the court, in every case but one $500 and costs, and the exception was in the case of Mrs. Wilitina Miller, of Washington, who was fined $1,000, with six months imprisonment in the county jail.

NANNYGOAT'S CRY FOOLS THE POLICE

Local police were taken on a wild goose chase about 7:30 o'clock last evening, when they were summoned to the hill district by a report that shots had been fired and that a man was calling for help. The entire force responded, Chief Albright with Thomas and Peters going around by Maple creek, while Murphy and Welsh, accompanied by Constable Corey went up on the hill to Meadow avenue and First street. The cry could be plainly heard, and after following the direction of the sound, they located the source along the Twilight road, where a nannygoat, evidently scared by the pistol shot, had set up a cry of fear. After learning the cause of the cry the police returned to headquarters.

TWO INDICATED FOR POST OFFICE ROBBERY. PROHIBITION LAW MADE PLAIN BY JUDGE

A true bill was returned by the Federal grand jury in Pittsburgh on Monday at the beginning of the November term of the United States District Court against Hugh Lane and John Ramsey, charged with robbing the postoffice at Fredericktown, in this county, of about $1,000 in stamps, $126.70 in postal funds and a number of Thrift and War Stamps last May 24. They will be called for trial within a week.

C. S. BATEMAN'S FATHER DIED THIS MORNING

A telegram was received from West Middlesex, Mercer county, this morning, announcing the death of James H. Bateman, Sr., at his home there from pneumonia, aged 86 years. He was the father of Charles S. Bateman of the Bank of Charleroi, and Mrs. George Wagner, and grandfather of Mrs. H. E. Price. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon.

MAKE FAST TIME ON RECONSTRUCTION WORK

The first 220-foot section of the new dam at Lock No. 6, Rice's Landing, has been completed and work started on Monday to remove the steel piling and begin on another 200-foot section towards the right bank. The new dam is 49 feet wide at the base, with a 33-foot slope and 13 feet above the lower pool. The old dam was removed and the new section built in five weeks. The new section contains 3,000 cubic yards of concrete, the average daily run being 197 cubic feet.

The crew, which is in charge of W. L. Croxton, is completing a record-breaking season, having changed the tops on Locks one, two, three and five, and now expects to complete the second 200-foot section before Christmas, providing the weather continues favorable.

Judge W. H. Thomson, in instructing the Federal grand jury at the opening of the November term of the United States District Court in Pittsburgh on Monday, laid particular emphasis on the violations of the Volstead act. He warned the jurors to note whether the fourth and fifth amendments to the Constitution are violated by prohibition agents in the enforcement, but pointed out that although the Volstead act holds the home inviolate and under certain circumstances one can commit homicide in defense of his home, this did not hold good in the case of stores, restaurants, saloons, hotels, or in the cases of homes adjoining the places of business.

NO SIGNS OF ABATEMENT OF MEASLES EPIDEMIC IN BORO.

TERM EXPIRES DAY HE WAS SENTENCED

Hiram Burch of Riverview, pleaded guilty Monday morning in court at Washington before Judge J. A. Melvaine, to a charge of larceny. It appears that on August 1 last he took gas pipe valued at $10 from the mine of the Philadelphia & Cleveland Coal company at Riverview, and sold it to a junk dealer. He was arrested and had been in jail since August 10. He was sentenced to pay the costs, a fine of $1, and to 88 days in jail, to date from August 10. This sentence gave him his freedom on Monday.

WAHOOS WINNERS OVER THE CUBS

The "Wahoos" took over the "Cubs" in two games out of three at the Elks' bowling alleys last night although the first victory was on the fluke order, as this contest was presented to Capt. Russell by Hancock, who lost the game on a foul by one pin. The Cubs came right back and won the second game by eight pins and when the teams prepared for the third game excitement was at high pitch. The Wahoos, however, were the better stayers, and took the game by 39 pins. Allman did the best bowling for the Cubs, while "Tink" Piersol was the star roller for the Wahoos, having a high score of 148 pins in the first game. Tonight the Packers play the Trimmers. Came called at 8:30. An important meeting of Captains of the bowling teams has been called for Wednesday evening, November 10.

Many Cases Are Still Being Reported to the Board of Health

NO SPECIAL PRIVILEGES GIVEN

According to statements made by the Health Officer, the epidemic of measles which has prevailed in Charleroi for several weeks, has not abated to any extent. At the present time there are ninety homes in the borough under quarantine, eleven of these homes being carded on Monday, while the health officer had five more this morning to place under restraint.

The board of health held a special meeting Saturday evening last, at which time a number of parties were called before the members for violation of the health and quarantine laws. It transpires that some of the families in town are covering up cases of measles in their homes, and are endeavoring to get by without having their houses quarantined. This is a difficult matter to do, especially if the child is of school age and attending school, for teachers are required by law to make an immediate report of all children relieved from school duties because of illness. On receipt of this report the health officer is expected to make an immediate investigation in order to ascertain what the trouble may be. In this way the health board keeps a very close watch on the situation, and it is believed that but few homes in the borough which should be under quarantine are missed.

The health board also let it be known Saturday night that no special privileges would be granted to any one. When a home is placed under quarantine because of measles or scarlet fever or diphtheria, the law must be observed to the fullest extent. No favors are to be granted to any one; all must receive the same consideration, and the same restrictions must be observed.

Reports come to the local board that a great deal of sickness prevails among children in Fallowfield township at the present time. None of the homes are carded and so far as known the laws of quarantine are not being observed. As a consequence nothing is being done outside of medical attendance to stop the spread of the maladies among children. This situation has been reported to Dr. C. B. Wood, county medical officer, who is expected to arrive here today to go over the situation and compel a closer and more rigid observance of the law.

Citizens can do much in the way of assisting the board of health in combatting disease by closely observing all regulations laid down by the state.

A CALL TO DUTY.

"The Republicans of the country will be guilty of self-delusion from which they will later suffer if they look upon the result of the recent election as a party victory," declares the Republican Publicity Association in a statement issued today through the President of that organization, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. "It is a party victory only in the sense that Republicans will be restored to control of both the legislative and the executive branches of the Government, but an analysis of public sentiment as manifested in political discussion leads to the conviction that the course pursued by the voters in marking their ballots was determined by their dissatisfaction with the Democratic party and its administration of the affairs of the Government, rather than by implicit confidence in the Republican organization. More than ever before in its history the Republican party is now on trial before the country."

"The situation which confronts the United States is a critical one. By many it is believed to be one of the most critical in our history. However that may be, none will gainsay the assertion that the problems which confront the nation are not only most difficult but most pressing."

"For eight years we have had an administration of watchful waiting, of surrender to foreign rivals, of internationalism rather than Americanism, of personal government rather than government by law, of extravagance and inefficiency rather than economy and high standards of public service."

"We are assured by the successful Republican nominees that they propose a return to the government of the Constitution, a representative government with each of the three co-ordinate branches exercising its own functions in co-operation with but not subjection to the others. We are assured that there will be conference by the head of the administrative branch of the Government not only with members of Congress but with citizens everywhere who are in a position to render valuable advice and assistance. The problems of the day are not, therefore, for solution by the President and by Congress alone, but all citizens are invited to perform their duty as such by making such suggestions as they can to aid in that reconstruction process through which the Government will encourage individual initiative, build up a permanent industrial prosperity on a solid basis and assure the perpetuity of government of, by and for the people."

"From beginning to end of the campaign, Senator Harding manifested his full appreciation of the seriousness of the task he would assume if elected to the Presidency. The rank and file of the Republican party should emulate his example and in the hour of victory should not permit their rejoicing over partisan success to blind them to the fact that the election is a call to duty and responsibility rather than a bestowal of the rewards of political victory."

A DESIRABLE INDUSTRY

The Georgia-Florida Cane Growers' Association announces a membership of some 1500 growers of sugar-cane, a membership representing "about 80 per cent of the total acreage in cane in the twelve counties in Georgia and Florida that produce practically all this product." The first object of the association is to encourage farmers to continue growing cane from year to year. The second object is to "encourage the making of a finer grade of syrup," and the third is to "extend the selling territory and increase the demand by judicious advertising."

Remember your dead. W. S. Cook and Co. Monuments with Lawrence Frye Funeral Director, 208-1 kind on the market. What is known as New Orleans molasses is poor stuff by comparison, and many prefer the Georgia product even to the best pure maple syrup. Some of those acquainted with the rare good quality of this South Georgia product have often wondered why the industry does not grow and the demand for so excellent a syrup become country-wide. In the past these cane growers of the South Atlantic seaboard have produced only enough for their own use and a small surplus for sale. The Georgia-Florida Cane Growers' Association could perform a useful public service by developing this highly desirable industry.

SAFE WITH HARDING.

The Harding who has come so clearly and convincingly into the thought and life of the nation is broad, just and reasonable. He will be above personal animosities. He will not stoop to resecutions born of jealousy or arrogance. His administration will not be disgraced by spiteful and ignoble tyranny. It is clear that Warren G. Harding will strive faithfully to be the impartial helper, protector and servant of all nations. He is the typical American: neither poor nor a millionaire, well-born, but self-made in the best sense. He exemplifies the serene home, the devoted husband, the good neighbor, the loyal friend, the helpful, public spirited citizen, who is the truest American type. The nation feels this, knows it, and likes and trusts Warren G. Harding.—Toledo Blade.

"Labor" is still luxuriating in silk shirts and perhaps still takes pride in paying $15 or $18 each for them, but the demand for this vanity is now likely to begin to slow up, for the word has gone forth that the really well-dressed man wouldn't be caught dead in one. The silk fruit season to raise the price of the proletariat, the well-dressed man who appears in what is known as "society" is unwilling to touch one with a ten-foot pole. So passes—or begins certainly to pass—the workingman's aspiring silk shirt.

Consumers who are required to pay 50 cents a thousand for natural gas, with two cents discount for prompt payment, will not be inclined to look upon such companies as philanthropic institutions. Like the sugar refiners, who wait until the fruit season to raise the price of their product, the natural gas companies selected a season of the year for announcing the raise when they were bound to get the consumer, either going or coming. It's a great life, if you don't weaken.

What became of the man who had "all figured out that because of the Democratic platform's silence on prohibition, Cox would carry all the thirsty Eastern states and the middle West? We are not sure, but it is probable that the fellow is at this moment skimming the froth from a crock of 6 per cent home brew and not giving a moment's thought to the Eighteenth Amendment.

There was quite a distinction between the Presidential election of last week, and the one in 1916. In the latter case it was several days before the contest was finally determined, but this year there was no question after Wednesday morning. The decision was clear cut and speedily given.

BAD SIGNS

Colds, Soreness and other inflammations you can't shake off are Bad Signs

Serious complications may result from them; in any case, they will become chronic, unless expelled from the system before it is too late.

For the relief of deep-seated inflammations, try applications of Krew-Pina Ointment and the Krew-Pina Vapor Treatment. Anoint the surface of the skin over the afflicted part; rub in briskly and cover warmly. Also, apply Krew-Pina in the nostrils. Do this upon retiring, and draw the bed clothes up over the nose, inhaling the medicinal vapors the warmth of the body releases from the ointment.

The Krew-Pina formula is highly effective, and the ingredients are all simple home remedies such as Oil of Pine and other volatile oils—Krew-Pina is powerful, but absolutely harmless.

Try it and see why it is always kept in the medicine chest by thousands of families for use in cases of cold, sore throat, feet or joints, croup, coughs, burns, bruises, cuts, etc. 30c and 60c jars with printed directions—at your druggist.

The recent decision of the Civil Service Commission to bar from appointment as detectives men over forty-five years has been criticized on the ground that quick head work rather than nimble leg-work is the need in chasing crooks. This is true, but it is also true that the older a man is the more readily he falls asleep when he sits down to think things out.

Shorty runs into Teebo!
"Snapper"

Atlanta, Wednesday

Dear PETEY:

Checked up our old dormitory pal "Snapper" Teebo this morning waiting on an appointment down Peachtree St. "Snap" wanted to know a bookfull about my visit to the Camel factories. "Tell us old apple seed," says "Snapper," "you're on the inside!" "Snap" still has that mighty annoying way of saying, "But that doesn't surprise me."

Anyhow—when I explained about the millions of Camels R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. made daily what does the old bird sputter but: "Why, Shorty, they'd have to make that many to supply the demand! Camels have the quality smokers want! And, they have the most wonderful mellow mild body and the most refreshing flavor ever created in a cigarette! Of course they make Camels by millions; of course they buy enough revenue stamps from Uncle Sam every day to build a duplicate of the Winston-Salem post office! Why not? Smokers everywhere will have Camels!"

But, "Snap" finally got to spilling some real nobby Camel selling stuff! "Shorty," says, "I want to put it on record that in all the time I've pulled Camels out of my pocket to supply somebody's shortage I've heard enough of things said about 'em to fill a volume! 'Tain't my brand! Camels are a wonderful cigarette! Like getting money from home," etc.

"And, Shorty, what's the answer? Why? Camels blend of choice Turkish and Cuban domestic tobaccos meets the universal taste. And that's the 'hole' story, old golf ball!"

Pete, you pet phonograph, did you ever hear a better record?

Sincerely,

Shorty

WOMEN MAY BE STRONG and enjoy life whether in the home or business world if they can keep at bay those ailments peculiar to their sex. If every woman realized how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that simple remedy made from roots and herbs, goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes such symptoms as headache, backache, nervousness and irritability they would be healthier, happier and stronger. If you suffer from any form of female ills why don't you try it? It will pay you to do so.

One would imagine from the editorial in last week's Roscoe Ledger that Editor Joe T. S. Cowen is considerably "peevish" as a result of the election last week.

Doctor's Thrilling Struggle With Death was Victorious

Fierce Battle With Grim Spectre Brought Health to Dr. H. V. Reese And a Message of Hope to Millions of Sufferers

Although his life was despaired of twenty-two years ago by some of the country's foremost authorities on stomach troubles, of which he had been a sufferer for more than ten years, Dr. H. V. Reese today, at seventy-four years of age, weighs forty pounds more than he has ever weighed, is hale and hearty and possesses more vigor than most men of fifty.

It was in 1898 that Dr. Reese, then a practicing physician of Huntington, W. Va., was told there was no hope for his recovery. His condition at that time was so critical that it was impossible for him to retain either food or drink in his stomach, and when, after going as long as possible without any nourishment, he would finally eat or drink something he would have to wash out his stomach before he had hardly swallowed a second mouthful. In fact, Dr. Reese's condition finally required the washing out of his stomach two and three times daily. In addition to stomach trouble Dr. Reese suffered from severe liver and kidney troubles, which generally accompany stomach ailments.

After he had sought relief through every known agency of the medical profession and had spent the major portion of his earnings for many years previous, Dr. Reese finally determined to spend his remaining days in experimenting upon himself in an endeavor to discover a remedy for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. After months of heart-breaking failures and with his condition growing worse, Dr. Reese and when, after going as long as possible without any nourishment, he finally hit upon the formula which now is known as The Reese Formula R 11, that completely restored his health.

Dr. Reese has been persuaded for years by friends and users of The Reese Formula R 11 to put his remedy on the market, already compounded at a price within the reach of everyone. This he has done, and Henning's Drug Store in Charleroi has been selected in which to give demonstrations. A representative of Dr. Reese will be at that store all this week to explain to sufferers the merits of The Reese Formula R 11. This great medicine is not a so-called Patent Medicine, but the ingredients, one or more of which are prescribed by every physician daily are printed with each bottle.

Anyone suffering from indigestion, nervousness, rheumatism, backache, lumbago, sour stomach, heartburn, urinary, kidney or liver troubles of any kind will do well to stop in at this store today and talk over their case with the Reese Formula Company's representative. It does not cost one penny to do this and you are under no obligations whatsoever.
